"Our Little Girl" Tonight, Friday and Saturday At Torrance Theatre

When the shadows of misunderstanding fall over the lives of her parents, Shirley Temple turns, in her new Fox Film Production, "Our Little Girl," to her pet Scottie for comfort. Shirley sings and dances as well as acts in this emotional story.

Shirley Scouts New Dog Theory

Do dogs make faces? "Certainly not," says Shirley Temple. "Why should they?" asked Joel McCrea, who plays Shirley's father in "Our Little Girl." Shirley's new Fox Film picture now playing at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne. The controversy arose when Lyle Talbot, who is also in the Fox picture, claimed that Shirley's "scottie" made faces at him. Shirley and Joel doubted Talbot's claim. The actor tried to prove his case by telling them that a great Scotch veterinary proved that animals, especially dogs, really make faces all of the time. "Now look," said Talbot, "that dog wants something to eat. The look in his eyes tells me that he is hungry."

Shirley laughed and replied, "That's funny, only ten minutes ago I gave him a can of dog food." Talbot intends to write to the famous doctor for additional information on "animal face making."

Edward Butcher produced and John Robertson directed "Our Little Girl," in which Shirley also sings.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

New "Scandals" Outshines Any Other Musical

"George White's 1935 Scandals," setting new standards in scintillating entertainment, comes next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday to the Torrance Theatre.

Fox Film's 1935 version is said to be so spectacular that it makes Broadway self-conscious.

It boasts haunting and peppy melodies, a rich stage extravaganza, a wealth of stars and beauties.

The picture holds a strong story that could alone sustain interest with its romantic element drawn from small-town Americans lured by the siren calls of Broadway and Hollywood.

Suspense, excitement, and pathos pulse through the plot. The coming "Scandals" has for magnets a handful of stage and screen stars whose names have blazed from the marquee of Manhattan's grand playhouses. Contributing to the gaiety are Alice Faye, James Dunn, Ned Sparks, Lydia Robert, Cliff Edwards, Arthur Hodge, Eleanor Powell, Emma Dunn, Benny Rubin and George White.

County Tax On Automobiles Is Required As Usual This Year

Under the newly enacted law which places an additional state registration fee on motor vehicles, at the same time removing such property from city and county tax rolls, payment of personal property taxes on cars will be required as usual this year. Next year, however, car owners will not pay a personal property tax on automobiles.

The law requiring stamping of registration certificates by assessors to show clearance of personal property tax payment will be in effect only for the 1935 renewal period.

Important features of the new law are emphasized in the following statement by the Automobile Club of Southern California:

The new additional fee, fixed at $1.75 per $100, becomes due and payable on January 1, 1936, with opening of the license renewal period. The new fee will constitute a lien on the car to which it applies. While the $3 fee will remain the same, the additional fee will be reduced one-twelfth each month elapsing from the beginning of any year on cars registered for the first time.

There will be no exemptions because the additional registration fee is not a property tax. Compared with the present personal property taxes the additional registration fee will result in only slight variations from the amounts now paid.

The new law provides that 25 percent of the amount collected by the state under the $1.75 rate shall be returned to the cities on the basis of relative population, and that 12.5 percent shall be returned to the counties on the same basis. The remainder of 62.5 percent goes into the state general fund, but it is provided that this money shall be "earmarked" for the purpose of paying interest and principal on old state highway bonds.

Playing in the title role in one of his finest presentations is Neil Hamilton. Providing the romantic interest, opposite him is pretty Betty Furness, while deeply sympathetic portrayals are enacted by Emma Dunn, Edith Fellows, Hobart Bosworth, Helen Jerome Eddy, Marion Shilling, James Hurst, Barbara Bedford and Lyle McKee.

Three Percent Sales Tax Goes Into Effect

Food Products Exempt From
Levy Under Law Recently
Adopted

Merchants and housewives alike were familiarizing themselves this week with the items to be taxed under the new three percent sales tax law, passed by the 1935 legislature just before adjournment, which went into effect Monday, July 1.

Two bills will have to be kept in mind, it was pointed out. The sales tax proper levies 3 percent and exempts food products for human consumption, except foods prepared and served on the premises. Food products exempt from tax are defined as "cereals and cereal products, milk and milk products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products."

"Fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products other than candy, and confectionery, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products other than candy and confectionery, but not including spirituous, malt or vinous liquors."

"Soft drinks, sodas or beverages, such as are ordinarily dispensed at bars and soda fountains or in connection therewith, nor does the term 'food products' include the furnishing, preparing or serving such tangible personal property." This the letter of the law, it was explained.

The other sales tax bill approved by the legislature would apply a 3 percent tax on the "use, consumption and storage in California of tangible personal property received in interstate commerce from other states." The state board of equalization is given jurisdiction over this act, and may regard salesmen as the agents of dealers under whom they operate, it was explained.
